

DORMITORY RULES AND REGULATIONS

These rules and regulations outline the general guidelines for the administration of the dormitories.

- 1. Residents of the dormitories are responsible for all items assigned by the dormitories administration, such as bunk beds, table, chairs etc. Items must not be removed or distributed to another room.
- 2. Dormitories Administration will keep control and have the right not to authorize members of the community (including other EUL students) to remain on campus.
- 3. Students will not allow other students to illegally occupy rooms.
- 4. Causing vandalism such as graffiti writing, drawing, destroying, and damaging University equipment will result in compensation of any damage they cause to property; students will be charged current cost of items in question.
- 5. Keeping and consuming alcoholic drinks on and around the premise or returning to campus while intoxicated as well as using or bringing onto the premises narcotic drugs or stimulants is strictly prohibited.
- 6. Gambling or keeping items used for gambling on the premises is inappropriate.
- 7. Student must not display in their room or on the premises of the dormitory any indecent pictures or posters.
- 8. Students must not keep any perishable, odorous or leaking products in the cupboards.
- 9. Action will be taken for behaving in a rude, uncivil or aggressive manner towards others; including administrative and service personnel of dormitories including making excessive noise or playing loud music.
- 10. Students by all means must obey all rules and regulations and by keeping the premises clean and tidy.
- 11. No animals are allowed to be kept in dormitories.
- 12. Students will behave in a civil and non aggressive manner towards administrative and service personnel of dormitories any rude behaviour will result in officials taking action.
- 13. Dormitory/students ID cards must be shown to security officers and dormitory administration at all times when required.

14. If the student is absent without a valid excuse from the dormitory for a total of 15 days in a semester, their registration will be penalized and asked to sign in each day for inspection.
15. No immoral acts are to be engaged such as viewing obscene or immoral literature or material that will offend others. Engaging in these activities will result in disruption of order and discipline on the premises.
16. Students must obey the closing hours of the premises, which are: 23:00 am on weekdays and 24:00 am on weekends and holidays. (Students who wish to stay out longer may apply to the Dormitory Manager in advance for special permission
17. Under extraordinary circumstances the dormitory administrator has the authority to transfer students whose rooms may be under construction.
18. Students must be aware that they can be admitted to the dormitory three days before the beginning of classes every semester, and must leave the dormitory within three days after the end of the semester.
19. No refunds are made to students who are penalized by dismissal.
20. Students wishing to leave the dormitories on their own accord even staying for a term will not be reimbursed.
21. In case of damage to property and inventory/stock, students are allowed 7 days for fees to be paid.
22. Students will obey the General Principles and Regulations, and they should be fully aware that otherwise disciplinary actions will be taken against them, as a result of which they may be suspended or dismissed from the dormitory, and will be referred to their faculty or school for similar disciplinary procedures.
23. Although sophomore students may reserve place at the EUL Dormitories in advance, freshman students are given priority in staying at the EUL Dormitories. Therefore, old students should bear in mind that they are not guaranteed place at the EUL accommodation and that reservation depends on the availability of free space upon the placement of freshman students.
24. There are no refund policies on dormitory fee payments at the EUL Dormitories. The only time the University refunds fees is when applicants fail to obtain a Turkish Transit Visa.
25. Once student sign in at the EUL Dormitories, their students accounts are automatically charged on the system (regardless whether payment of accommodation fees have been made or not)!!!

EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY OF LEFKE